International Association of Translators and Interpreters in the Canary Islands

ai-ti is a non-profit making association of self-employed translators and interpreters whose objective is to boost efficiency and the service offered by member translators, as well as ensuring that all work carried out is of maximum quality that fulfils the requirements of our clients.

FOR THE TRANSLATOR ai-ti means a head office that takes care of the distribution of translations and invoicing and that provides the support and collaboration which a self-employed translator does not normally have. Behind every member translator of ai-ti, therefore, there is a large team of motivated professionals who are willing to resolve doubts, give advice, share out work if necessary, etc.

FOR OUR CLIENTS ai-ti becomes the perfect solution for their translation work as with only one telephone call they will be able to find translators for all the languages they may need. We have a large database of translators, covering almost all the languages in the world with translators both residents in Spain and in the rest of the world. All ai-ti translators, moreover, use the same price list, thus avoiding having to pay illogical differences for different languages.

Being an association, and not an agency, all invoices are issued in the name of the translator who has carried out the translation, eliminating in this way agency costs that normally make translations more expensive.

What more could you ask for?

Perhaps a 24-hour service? But that would be too much to ask for, wouldn't it?

Well, NO, it is not too much to ask for, as ai-ti does have a 24-hour service every day of the week, which also includes sending interpreters to your offices in many towns and cities.

To sum up, ai-ti can offer you:

- Professional translators and interpreters for almost all the languages in the world
- Wide experience in practically all types of translations
- Quality and reliability in the carrying out of projects
- Transparency in the invoicing of translations
- One price list only for everyone
- Free estimates – no obligation
- 24-hour service
- And much more...

Why not join a long list of loyal clients and associates who endorse our competence. Have you already become one of them too?

Please find out for yourself and do tell a.i.translators what you think by phone, fax, snail- or e-mail
